ORDER

CS/1709/66

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955) read with the order of the Government of India, Ministry of Food, Agriculture, Community Development and Cooperation (Department of Food) no. G. S. R. 906 dated the 9th June, 1966 and with the prior concurrence of the Central Government, the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following Order namely:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.— (1) This Order may be called «the Goa, Daman and Diu Controlled Commodities (Regulation of Distribution) Order, 1966.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

(3) It shall come into force on the 31st July, 1966.

2. Definitions.— In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) «Authorized Establishment» means catering establishment, hospitals, institutions, residential establishments, manufacturing establishments, mills, industries and any other establishments or class of establishments which the Government or the Director, Civil Supplies may declare to be establishments for the purpose of this Order;

(b) «Authorised fair price shop» means a shop run by a cooperative society or by a licensed dealer where controlled commodities are sold under the control of Government.

Explanation—On the commencement of this Order every cooperative society or dealer appointed or approved by the Directorate of Civil Supplies/Collector and the appointment or approval of which was in force immediately before such commencement shall be deemed to be an authorized fair price shop for the purposes of this Order.

(c) «Controlled commodities» means the commodities specified in the Schedule to this Order which are supplied by Government to any fair price shop or establishment for issue to the consumers, as well as such other commodities as may be notified by the Administrator from time to time and include milk (powder and condensed) imported into this Union Territory.

(d) «Establishment consumption» means all consumption of controlled commodities supplied by an establishment for consumption on the premises of the establishment or elsewhere;

(e) «Licensed dealer» means a dealer holding a valid licence under the Goa, Daman and Diu Sugar Dealer Licensing Order, 1963 and the Goa, Daman and Diu Foodgrains Dealers Licensing Order 1964, or an authorisation under this order.

(f) «Ration card» means a card or permit or other document issued or made available under the provisions of this Order by the Specified Authority, for obtaining supplies of controlled commodities and any card or permit or other document issued before the commencement of this Order and on which controlled commodities were obtained immediately before such commencement.

(g) «Specified Authority» means the Director of Civil Supplies, Collector, Deputy Collector, the Collector Daman, the Civil Administrator, Diu or any other officer or person notified by Government in this behalf.

3. Authorizations.— The Government or the Specified Authority may issue from time to time to authorized fair price shop or any person having charge of an establishment, authorization to obtain from Government godowns or other agencies controlled commodities in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

4. Security Deposit.— Every authorized establishment or fair price shop before obtaining the authorization mentioned in foregoing paragraph, shall deposit with the Government a sum of Rs. 100/- if it is run by a Cooperative Society and Rs. 200/- in other cases, for the due performance of the conditions of the authorization or any direction that may be given by the Specified Authority and the sum so deposited or any part thereof may without prejudice to any other penalty be forfeited after giving to person concerned an opportunity of showing cause by the Government or the Specified Authority for contravention of any such conditions or directions.

5. Powers to amend, suspend or cancel the authorizations.— The Government or the Specified Authority may from time to time, whether at the request of the person concerned on its own motion after making such inquiry as may be deemed necessary, amend, suspend or cancel the authorization issued or deemed to be issued under this Order.

Provided, however, that before any authorization is cancelled, the person affected shall be given an opportunity of showing cause against such cancellation.

6. Supply of controlled commodities.— No authorized fair price shop or any other person shall sell or agree to sell or supply or agree to supply controlled commodities to any person except against a ration card and at such prices and at such quantity as may be specified by the Government or Director, Civil Supplies in this behalf from time to time.

Explanation—Supply of controlled commodities by the establishment for establishment consumption shall be made in accordance with the directions issued by the specified authority from time to time.

7. Powers to issue ration card.— (1) The Government or the specified authority or any other authority appointed by Government in this behalf, may issue or cause to be issued ration cards to any person or class of persons or to the public generally.

Provided that no such card shall be issued to any person unless such person or any other member of his family to whom the card is tendered on his behalf produces the necessary evidence as required by the specified authority.

(2) The specified authority or any other authority appointed by Government may at any time after making such inquiry as may be deemed necessary, add to, amend, suspend or cancel the ration cards.

Where any such card is suspended or cancelled, any person in possession of it should forthwith deliver it to the issuing authority.

Provided, however, that before any ration card is cancelled the person affected shall be given an opportunity of showing cause against such cancellation.

8. Replacement of ration cards. — Where any ration card is defaced, lost or destroyed, the Specified Authority on the request of the holder, after making such inquiry as he may think fit, may issue a new ration card in place thereof on payment of a fee of fifty paise. Every person to whom a new ration card has been issued shall, if he subsequently finds the lost one, forthwith return the latter to the issuing authority.

9. Prohibitions on transfer of ration card. — No person shall transfer to any other person a ration card issued to himself and no person shall use or dispose of or hold such card except under or in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

10. Property in ration card. — Every ration card or authorization issued under this Order shall be the property of the Government and the person to whom it is issued shall be responsible for its safe custody.

11. Prohibition against applying for duplicate cards. — No person shall —

(a) dishonestly apply for or receive a ration card if he knows or has reason to believe that his name is already included in any other card issued to any household.

(b) obtain a ration card by furnishing false information.

12. Change of establishment. — In the event of a change of the person in charge of an establishment, the specified authority may at the request of the new person in charge of such establishment, cancel the authorization issued in the name of persons previously in the charge of such establishment and issue a new one in place thereof on payment of a fee of fifty paise.

13. Notice of absence. — Every card holder shall notify the specified authority or any other person authorized in this behalf the absence from any household of any person or persons included in the card for more than one month. The notice shall be given within seven days from the date or expiry of the aforesaid period.

14. Obligation to furnish returns and other particulars. — Every authorized establishment or authorized fair price shop as the case may be shall furnish to the specified authority the returns and other particulars relating to his dealings in and stocks of controlled commodities in accordance with the directions that may be given by him.

15. Powers to issue directions. — (1) The Government or the Specified Authority in this behalf may issue directions providing for:—

(a) The conditions subject to which controlled commodities may be supplied/moved or obtained for household consumption or for establishment consumption or for any other purpose;

(b) The kind and quantity of controlled commodity to be issued for each purpose and the price to be charged therefore.

(c) The manner in which ration cards may be used for obtaining controlled commodities including the conditions subject to which such cards may be registered with any authorized fair price shops.

(d) The period for which the ration cards shall be valid.

(e) The number of units allotted to any person or class of persons.

(f) The quantity of controlled commodities which a unit shall represent.

(g) The forms of authorizations to be issued and the conditions subject to which the authorized fair price shop or authorized establishment may obtain, move or supply controlled commodities.

(h) The registers that should be maintained and the returns that should be furnished.

(2) Every authorized fair price shop or other person to whom any order or direction is issued under any powers conferred by or under this Order shall comply with such order or direction.

16. Powers to enter premises, inspect, search or seize ration card, ask question, require production of documents etc. — (1) Any officer or person authorized by the Government or the Specified Authority may at all reasonable times enter any premises, inspect any ration card, stock of controlled commodities, books of account or other documents pertaining to dealings in controlled commodities and may in the course of such inspection search for and seize any such document or article in respect of which he has reason to believe that any provision made by or any direction issued in pursuance of this Order has been or is being or is attempted to be contravened.

(2) The provisions of section 102 and 103 to the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 (5 of 1898) relating to search and seizure shall so far as may be, apply to searches and seizures under this clause.
